

May 10, 2011

The Colorado Lutheran High School Association is pleased to announce that Lutheran High School will be adding wrestling for the 2011-2012 school year.

The CLHSA is also pleased to announce that Rev. Dr. Brad Stoltenow will be the head coach for the wrestling program.

Wrestling Coaching Biography for Brad Stoltenow

Pastor of Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, Centennial, CO, 2006 to current

Began coaching career at Concordia Lutheran High School, Ft. Wayne, Indiana, 1984-86, 88
-2 Individual State Tournament Entrants

Head Coach – Deer River High School, Deer River, Minnesota, 1988-1992

- 7 Individual State Tournament Entrants
- 1 State champion
- 1990-91 Region 7A Dual Team Qualifier
- 1991-92 Sub Region 7A North Dual Team Champions
- 1991-92 Sub Region 7A Coach of the Year

Assistant Coach – Bismarck High School, Bismarck, North Dakota, 1992-2005

- 37 Individual State Champions
- 7 State Tournament Team Championships
- 6 State Tournament Dual Team Championships
- 4 Amateur Wrestling News All –Americans
- 5 ASICS Tiger All-Americans
- 16 Junior National Championship All-Americans (USA Wrestling)
- 1 NHSCAA Academic All-American
- 8 USA Wrestling Magazine All-Americans
- 3 National High School Championship All-Americans
- 1995 Nat'l Wrestling Coaches Association – North Dakota Assistant Coach of the Year
- 1996 Nat'l Wrestling Coaches Association Region 5 Assistant Coach of the Year

Assistant Coach – Chaparral High School, Parker, CO, 2006-2008

- 1 Individual State Champion
- 8 State Entrants

Brad and his wife, Jodie, are the parents of three grown children, Anna (Chad Huber), Kylie and Joe, and are grandparents to 1 year old, Willa. Joe Stoltenow is a Lutheran High School Parker graduate and will be an Assistant Coach with his dad at Lutheran High.

Anyone interested in wrestling at Lutheran High School is encouraged to contact Coach Stoltenow at 303-503-7731. Parents are encouraged to call with any inquiries. No experience required.